

Holy Week

WORSHIP GUIDE

LifePoint
CHURCH

This guide is designed to help LifePoint Church follow along with Scripture's day-by-day account of the final week of the Lord Jesus' life, leading up to His resurrection. Each day, from Palm Sunday to Resurrection Sunday, will teach us something about who Jesus is and what He accomplished. We hope that you will be blessed as we walk with Jesus through the most important week in human history.

Instructions:

This worship guide begins on Sunday, March 29—the first day of Holy Week. It is intended to be done each day in a group setting. We encourage you to do this together as much as possible with family, friends, neighbors, or a life group. In this guide, you will find readings, reflections, prayers, songs, and activities meant to focus your heart on Jesus. Set aside 15 to 20 minutes each day to walk through the guide together. In the midst of busy lives, it is essential that we take time to recalibrate our hearts on Jesus.

For families with young children, consider using as much of the worship guide as possible. Choose one of the passages to read, as well as a song to sing. The rest of the guide can be completed with the adults and older children at another time, perhaps after the little ones have gone to bed.

This worship guide should be used as a supplement to your normal Bible reading plan.

Sunday, March 29 (Palm Sunday)

The Real Jesus

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: I Kings 1:32–40; Zechariah 9:9; Matthew 21:1–11

Summary of the Day: Palm Sunday

This day commemorates Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem, when He was welcomed by crowds waving palm branches and shouting, "Hosanna!" It marks the beginning of Holy Week.

Reflect:

The Sunday before Christ was crucified, He entered Jerusalem to songs and celebration. The people welcomed Him as a King. As Jesus rode in on a mule, He would have evoked the image of Solomon riding David's mule when he was anointed king. This signified to the people that Jesus, the true Son of David, had come to reign over His people. Just as with Solomon, the people of Israel rejoiced. They hoped He would liberate them from their Roman rulers as they laid palm branches and tunics on the ground before Him. Tragically, they didn't realize why Jesus had come to Jerusalem, despite His repeated announcements of His plan (Matt. 12:40; Mark 8:31; 9:31; 10:34). They didn't realize that He did not come to defeat Rome. He came to defeat a greater enemy: Sin. Sadly, many in Jerusalem did not welcome Christ as the rightful King and even called for His death days later (Mark 15:10–14).

This should lead us to ask: Do we know the true Jesus found in the Bible? Do we want a Jesus who comes to give us what we want—who is made in our own image? Or do we want the true Jesus revealed in God's Word who came to free us from our sin and conform us into His image? Jesus must be received as He is. We are called to conform to Him rather than Him conforming to us. Jesus must be received as the rightful King and Lord over all—not reduced to a convenient king who rules only where we allow Him.

Pray:

- Thank Jesus for His bravery in entering Jerusalem on Palm Sunday, knowing what awaited Him, and praise Him for being the King who came to free us from our sins.
- Intercede for those whom you know by name who don't know Jesus. Think about your family, friends, co-workers, teammates, and neighbors.
 - Not sure who your neighbors are? Sign up and use the Bless Every Home app to pray for your neighbors by name: blesseveryhome.com/light/

Sing:

- Adults: Shout Hosanna – Passion
youtu.be/3ENz8bk4H90
- Kids: Awe – LifePoint Kids
youtu.be/AKccpl9KsN0

Optional Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 21:1–11; Mark 11:1–11; Luke 19:28–44; John 12:12–36.

Monday, March 30

Pure Temples of God

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: Isaiah 56:1-8; Matthew 21:12-19

Summary of Monday:

This day represents the day when Jesus cursed the fig tree and cleansed the Temple of the moneychangers and traders who were exploiting the poor and keeping the nations from worshipping God.

Reflect:

Jesus had two crucial interactions on this day. He first cursed a fruitless fig tree, symbolizing the coming judgment that would fall upon Israel for their fruitlessness and rejection of God's Son (Jer. 8:13; Hosea 9:10). Secondly, Jesus arrived at the temple, where He found God's people seeking personal profit instead of God's glory. The temple was the center of Jewish worship and the place where God's presence dwelt among His people. The merchants and money changers were conducting their business in the Court of the Gentiles, which was meant to be a sacred space for all people to worship God. The presence of these money changers and merchants made it difficult for non-Jewish worshippers to access the temple and pray in peace. By overturning the tables and driving out the merchants, Jesus showed righteous anger at the commercialization of the temple and demonstrated the Lord's heart for the nations to worship Him freely (Mark 11:17; Micah 4:2). Jesus sought to purify the temple by cleansing it of wicked people operating within. He wanted to ensure that all people—Jew and Gentile—could come and worship God.

However, Israel's sinfulness went beyond the temple at Passover. The corruption of the temple grew out of the corruption of their hearts. This should cause us to reflect on ourselves. Our bodies are called the temples of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. 6:19-20). We should examine our own hearts for any sins or false motives that need to be driven out. If Jesus showed up to the temple of your heart, what would a thorough examination reveal? Is the Holy Spirit producing fruit in your life? Do you have a heart for the nations to worship the one true God, or are you only interested in serving yourself? Jesus driving out the wicked was not only an act of judgment, but an act of love. Jesus loves us enough to drive wickedness out of our hearts as well.

Pray:

- Ask the Lord to produce fruit in your life, family, home, and church.
- Ask God to reveal sins within your own heart that need to be driven out. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you put to death these "deeds of the body" (Rom 8:13).
- Thank Jesus that His blood brings cleansing to our hearts when we come and confess to Him (1 John 1:9).
- Ask God to give you a heart for the nations to worship Him.

- Pray for one of our missionaries, whom God has sent from our body to the nations by name. Ask God to help them make the real Jesus known.
 - Not sure who to pray for, go to: lifept.org/sent-ones

Sing:

- Adults: Forever Holy - Travis Ryan
youtu.be/y6_ylzcQgMg
- Kids: Awe - LifePoint Kids
youtu.be/AKccpl9KsN0

Optional Full Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 21:12-19; Mark 11:12-19; Luke 19:45-46.

Tuesday, March 31

The Coming Judgment

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: Matthew 24:1-14; Romans 5:1-11

Summary of Tuesday:

Tuesday was a busy day. Jesus taught His disciples, engaged in different controversies in the temple, confronted the Pharisees, and gave shocking predictions about the future. The common theme throughout this day is that God's judgment was about to pour out upon an unrepentant Israel.

Reflect:

The disciples marveled at how amazing and massive the temple was. Jesus shocks them by saying that it will be destroyed very soon. For the Jews, destroying the temple would be like the entire universe coming undone. The temple was the place where God's presence dwelt. How could it be destroyed? Christ's words were fulfilled within a matter of decades when the Romans destroyed Jerusalem in 70 AD. As Jesus warns His hearers of impending judgment, we cannot help but rejoice at the fact that the greatest act of judgment was poured out upon Jesus Himself! Jesus' predictions about what would become of an unrepentant Israel were severe, but thank God that all of our sins were placed upon Christ on the cross. He bore the terrifying wrath of God in our place so that all who put their faith in Him could be saved from His wrath (Rom. 5:9).

Pray:

- Thank God that Jesus has paid the price for your sin on the cross, saving you from God's wrath. Praise Him for His great love and mercy toward undeserving people.
- Ask for God's help to continue enduring toward greater obedience and love for Him.
- Intercede for the nations throughout the world that have not yet heard the gospel. If you are not sure which nations to pray for, use the Joshua Project or Unreached of the Day website, or download the App here.

Sing:

- Adults: Hallelujah Here Below - Elevation Worship
youtu.be/M7MR77AVBOs
- Kids: I Believe in Jesus - SaddleBack Kids
youtu.be/pLB2UeXvvpQ

Optional Full Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 21:20-26:2; Mark 11:27-13:37; Luke 20:1-21:36; John 12:37-50

Wednesday, April 1

Jesus is Betrayed & Anointed

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: Matthew 26:6-16; Psalm 37:1-11

Summary of Wednesday:

This day commemorates the betrayal of Jesus by Judas Iscariot and the anointing of Jesus for burial by Mary.

Reflect:

On Wednesday, we see a contrast between Mary and Judas. Mary crouches down at the feet of Jesus, pours expensive ointment on His feet, and offers a beautiful display of worship to Him. Judas, who was critical of Mary's actions, betrays Jesus by selling Him to the chief priests for 30 pieces of silver (roughly $7,500).

Mary's heartfelt devotion and Judas's cruel selfishness remind us that every person has a choice to make when confronted with Jesus Christ. Will we bow down in submission to Him? Will we offer Him the best of what we have, deny ourselves, and follow Him no matter the cost? Or will we attempt to cast Him aside, honor ourselves, and prioritize our own interests? Every person will either respond like Mary or Judas. What will your response be?

Pray:

- Ask the Lord to search your heart and reveal any hidden sin or ungodly desires (Psalm 139:23-24).
- Confess any ways you have valued your comfort, approval, or possessions more than Christ.
- Ask God to give you a heart like Mary, one that gladly worships and sacrifices for Jesus.

Sing:

- Adults: All I Have is Christ - Sovereign Grace
youtu.be/idRIhFTqIW4
- Kids: The Gospel - Ryan Stevenson (with LP Kids Motions)
youtu.be/nyaC7OqL3vw

Optional Full Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 26:3-16; Mark 14:3-11; Luke 21:37-22:1-6

Thursday, April 2

The True Passover Lamb

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: Matthew 26:17-29; Luke 22:39-53

Summary of Thursday:

This day marks the Last Supper, when Jesus shared the Passover meal with His disciples and instituted the Lord's Supper (also called communion). Today, Jesus also washes the disciples' feet as a sign of His humility and love.

Reflect:

As Jesus and His disciples celebrated Passover, they remembered the way God saved Israel from slavery in Egypt. To break Pharaoh's hard heart and liberate them from their captivity, God sent ten terrible plagues upon Egypt. The final plague was the most severe: the death of all the firstborn. However, instead of killing the firstborn of the Israelites, God told them to offer a spotless lamb and cover their doorposts with its blood. That way, the angel of death would see that a sacrifice had been made and pass over their homes.

On Thursday, in the upper room with His disciples, Jesus instituted a new sacred institution: The Lord's Supper. Jesus was about to become the true Passover lamb by spilling His own blood and offering His own body for the sake of God's people. As He passed the wine and bread to His disciples, Jesus gave His people a reminder that God's judgment has passed over us. This reminder has been practiced and will continue to be practiced by the Church until the Lord Jesus returns (1 Cor. 11:26). Jesus is the true Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world (John 1:29).

Pray:

- Thank the Lord that He supplied a substitute to take His wrath in our place.
- Praise Jesus for bowing to the perfect will of the Father even when it was terrifying.
- Ask God to help you always remember the sacrifice Jesus made to purchase your freedom from sin.

Sing:

- Adults: Man of Sorrows - Hillsong Worship
youtu.be/LZjBJuHgXPE
- Kids: I Believe in Jesus - SaddleBack Kids
youtu.be/pLB2UeXvvpQ

Optional Full Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 26:17-75, Mark 14:12-72, Luke 22:7-71, John 13:1-17:26

Preparation for the Following Day:

On Friday, April 3, we will gather together at our Smyrna Campus (Smyrna, Stewarts Creek, & Riverdale Campuses) and Franklin Campus for a Good Friday Service at 6:30pm. We will be partaking in the Lord's Supper together. If your children aren't yet believers, make time tonight to explain the gospel to them and help them understand that the Lord's Supper is for people who have already trusted Jesus as their Savior and Lord (1 Cor. 10:16–17). We've provided some talking points below to help you with this conversation:

Explaining the gospel to your children:

- We have all sinned against God. We have broken His rules. We have disobeyed what He has told us to do (Romans 3:23).
- Because of this, we all deserve to be punished for our sins (Romans 6:23).
- But Jesus came to the earth and always obeyed everything God said.
- Even though He never sinned, Jesus took the punishment for sin that we deserved.
- Imagine that you disobeyed and were going to receive a spanking, but your brother (who did not disobey) came in and got a spanking instead. That is like what Jesus did for us on the cross. He took the punishment that we deserved because we disobeyed God (2 Corinthians 5:21).
- Now, God wants us to trust that Jesus died for our sins and to ask Him to clean our hearts by forgiving all our disobedience (1 John 1:9).
- You can become a follower of Jesus right now by talking to Him and telling Him you want to become a part of His family (Romans 10:9).
- When you talk to God: Admit that you need Jesus to be your Savior, believe that Jesus is God's Son, and confess that you have disobeyed God and need forgiveness.

Hour-by-Hour for Good Friday:

We also want to provide you with a resource that gives the approximate hour-by-hour guide for Good Friday that you could put in your calendar as events or set them as reminders to sound throughout the day. See the link below for the Good Friday, hour-by-hour guide: www.thegospelcoalition.org/article/good-friday-in-real-time/

Friday, April 3

Jesus Dies

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: Isaiah 53; John 19:16-30

Summary of Friday:

This day commemorates Jesus' arrest, trial, and crucifixion. It is a day of solemn remembrance and awe as we reflect on Jesus' sacrifice for our sins.

Reflect:

On Good Friday, Jesus endured the greatest suffering any human has ever known. In His own body, He took the full punishment and wrath our sins deserved, allowing Himself to be beaten and nailed to the cross. He did this willingly, driven by what He knew His suffering would accomplish: our salvation. (John 10:17-18; Heb. 12:1-2).

Everyone comes into this world as an enemy of God (Psalm 51:5; Eph. 2:3). And because of this, we all deserve punishment for breaking God's Law (Rom. 3:23; 6:23). But on Good Friday, Jesus took all the sin of God's people upon Himself so that He could pay the penalty that we owed (Rom. 5:8-10). So even though Christ suffered unimaginably, we can rejoice because He bore that suffering in our place. Through His sacrifice, He transforms us from rebels into beloved sons and daughters. At the cross, Jesus paid the price for our redemption completely. His final words give us the ultimate reason why this Friday was so good: It is finished.

As we come together to celebrate Good Friday, we will observe the Lord's Supper. This is a reminder for God's people of all that Jesus did for us on the cross. If you have children who are not yet believers, we ask that you ensure they do not take it with us. Instead, set aside some time to talk to your children about what the Lord's Supper symbolizes and use this time to present the gospel to them.

Pray & Sing:

- The Smyrna, Stewarts Creek, and Riverdale Campuses are all gathering together at our Smyrna Campus for a Good Friday Service at 6:30pm. Join us!
- The Franklin Campus is gathering at their campus on Good Friday at 6:30pm.

Optional Full Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 27:1-61; Mark 15:1-47; Luke 23:1-55; John 18:1-19:42

Saturday, April 4

God Rested

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: Luke 23:50-56; Matthew 27:62-66; Genesis 2:1-3

Summary of Saturday:

This day represents the time between Jesus' death and resurrection, when He lay in the tomb.

Reflect:

For many people, Saturday is a day of relaxation and leisure. Throughout Israel's history, Saturday was their Sabbath—a day of rest from all their work. But for Jesus' disciples and family, this Sabbath was anything but restful. Although they obeyed God's commandment to rest (Luke 23:56), we can imagine that their hearts were restless. We can imagine the disciples pacing back and forth in the place where they were hiding. We can imagine Jesus' mother, Mary, weeping all day as she pictured images of her son's suffering over and over. We can imagine Peter beating his chest ceaselessly at the humiliation of denying his Lord the night before (Luke 22:54-62). Even the Pharisees spent the day plotting and worrying about what would happen next, making sure the tomb had guards posted so that nothing else would come of Jesus.

But what did Jesus do? While everyone else was restless, frantic, and panicking, He rested. Just like in Genesis 2. God the Son worked for six days and then rested on the seventh. While Jerusalem was in a frenzy (Luke 24:13-18), God rested. His work was finished.

Pray:

- Thank the Lord that He has control of all things, even when things seem chaotic.
- Ask God to bring stillness to any panic or fear that might be seizing your heart.
- Thank the Lord that He will never stop sustaining you, even when you lack faith.

Sing:

- Adults: How Deep the Father's Love For Us - Austin Stone Worship
youtu.be/z65YxhqYO_E
- Kids: This Is Amazing Grace - Grace Kids
youtu.be/hYLDDe5hM2AU

Optional Full Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 27:62-66, Luke 23:56

Preparation for the Following Day:

On Sunday, April 5 we will gather at our individual campuses to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus.

Sunday, April 5

Resurrection Sunday

Read the Selected Daily Scripture: John 20:1-23; Acts 2:6-11; Revelation 1:18

Summary of Sunday:

This day celebrates the Resurrection of Jesus Christ, when He triumphed over sin and death and ensured life and hope to all who believe in Him.

Reflect:

After resting on the Sabbath, Jesus rose again in triumph. At the cross, Jesus paid the penalty for our sin. On Easter Sunday, He rose, guaranteeing that He had the authority to make His death effective for all who put their faith in Him. Think about it like this: On Friday, Jesus swiped a debit card to purchase our freedom. On Sunday, the words "transaction approved" appeared on the screen. By rising from the dead, Jesus proved that He is God and that He has the power to give life to all who trust in Him. He proved that redemption for God's people had been accomplished and that our future in Heaven with Him is secure.

Because Jesus died and rose again, He is rightfully called "King of Kings" and "Lord of Lords" (1 Tim. 6:15-16). After His resurrection, Jesus spent many more weeks with His disciples before He ascended to the right hand of the Father (Acts 2:33). Jesus is alive today, ruling and reigning over all things with perfect power, sovereignty, wisdom, and love. And He shall reign forever and ever. All praise be to our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Pray & Sing:

Join us today at one of our Gatherings

- Smyrna: *7:30am, 9:00am, & 10:45am
- Stewarts Creek: *6:45am, 8:00am, 9:30am, & 11:00am
- Riverdale: *Apr 4 at 5:00pm. Apr 5 at 8:10am, 9:30am, & 10:50am
- Franklin: 9:00am & 10:30am

*Family Gathering; No Kids or Preschool Ministry.

No Kids Ministry. Birth-Pre K will be available.

Optional Full Reading for this day in Scripture:

Matthew 28:1-20; Mark 16:1-20; Luke 24:1-53; John 20:1-21:25

Song Lyrics

Shout Hosanna

To the King of Glory and Light
All Praises
To the only giver of life
Our Maker

The gates are open wide
We worship You
Come see what love has done
Amazing
He bought us with His blood
Our Savior
The cross has overcome
We worship You

Shout Hosanna
Jesus, He saves
Shout Hosanna
He rose from the grave
Come and lift Him up
Hosanna

Now let the lost be found
Forgiven
Death could not hold Him down
He's risen
So let the saints cry out
We worship You
We worship You

The same power
That rolled the stone away
The same power
Alive in us today
King Jesus
We call upon Your name
No other name
No other Name

AWE

The wonders of Your love are never dull to us
Everyday with You somehow feels brand new
You give us all You are without a second thought
We'll never get used to You

We shout for all Your goodness
We dance cause we can't help it
By Your Holy Spirit
We're filled with, we're filled with...

AWE!

The countless galaxies that sing Your majesty
Just scratch the surface, just hint at Your wonder
Throughout all time and space, there's just one
Mighty Name
That echoes like thunder

God, You leave us breathless
Standing in Your presence
All it takes is just a moment
And we're filled with, we're filled with..

Forever Holy

Endlessly, tirelessly sung through the ages
Our humble response to Your glory and greatness
With all of creation, we're longing and aching
To sing holy, louder still holy

Be it ever on our tongues
'Til we've lived our lives and returned to dust
Only to be raised up, to bow and sing once more
You are holy Lord Forever holy Lord

This passionate cry is born here in these moments
Fully confronted by all You've done for us
How could we not join as one in the chorus
To sing holy, sing it out holy Lord

For Your compassion and unending love
We sing holy, holy
For Your great mercy and kindness to us
We sing holy, holy
For being the hope even death cannot shake
We sing holy, holy
For all of the power we find in Your name
We sing holy, holy
Because You are sovereign in heaven and earth
We sing holy, holy
Matchless in beauty and infinite worth
We sing holy, holy

I Believe In Jesus (Saddleback Kids)

You came from heaven
You loved me, You loved me
You gave up all you had
You saved me, You saved me

Your life was given
You loved me, You loved me
So I live forever
You saved me, You saved me

You made a way for me
You came to set me free

I believe in Jesus, I believe you came to save
I believe in Jesus Christ
I will trust in Jesus, I will live to follow him
I will trust in Jesus Christ

Clap, clap, clap if you feel it
Sing, sing, sing like you mean it
Clap, clap, clap
I believe, I believe, I believe

Hallelujah Here Below

We are an altar of broken stones
But you delight in the offering
You have the heavens
To call your home
But you abide in the song we sing
Ten thousand angels

Surround your throne
To bring you praise that will never cease
But hallelujah from here below
Is still your favorite melody

We sing hallelujah, hallelujah, hallelujah

And should the fire that
Once burned bright
Become an ember my eyes can't see
I will remember your sacrifice
I will abide in your love for me

Jesus Christ
Our king enthroned
All the praise is yours
Forevermore

Hallelujah here below
All the praise is yours
Forevermore

O what a wonderful day to come
When every knee bows before your name
But we will not wait until it does
For here and now shall your Kingdom reign

Man Of Sorrows

Man of sorrows, Lamb of God
By His own betrayed
The sin of man and wrath of God
Has been on Jesus laid

Silent as He stood accused
Beaten, mocked, and scorned
Bowling to the Father's will
He took a crown of thorns

Oh that rugged cross my salvation
Where Your love poured out over me
Now my soul cries out hallelujah
Praise and honor unto Thee

Sent of heaven, God's own Son
To purchase and redeem
And reconcile the very ones
Who nailed Him to that tree

Now my debt is paid
It is paid in full
By the precious blood
That my Jesus spilled
Now the curse of sin
Has no hold on me
Whom the Son sets free
Oh is free indeed

See the stone is rolled away
Behold the empty tomb
Hallelujah, God be praised
He's risen from the grave!

This Is Amazing Grace

Who breaks the power of sin and darkness?
Whose love is mighty and so much stronger?
The King of glory, the King above all kings

Who shakes the whole earth with holy thunder?
And leaves us breathless in awe and wonder?
The King of glory, the King above all kings

This is amazing grace
This is unfailing love
That You would take my place
That You would bear my cross
You laid down Your life
That I would be set free
Oh, Jesus, I sing for
All that You've done for me

Who brings our chaos back into order?
Who makes the orphans a son and daughter?
The King of glory, the King of glory

Who rules the nations with truth and justice
Shines like the sun in all of its brilliance
The King of glory, the King above all kings

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain
Worthy is the King who conquered the grave

How Deep The Father's Love For Us

How deep the Father's love for us,
How vast beyond all measure,
That He should give His only Son
To make a wretch His treasure.
How great the pain of searing loss –
The Father turns His face away,
As wounds which mar the Chosen One
Bring many sons to glory.

Behold the man upon a cross,
My sin upon His shoulders;
Ashamed, I hear my mocking voice
Call out among the scoffers.
It was my sin that held Him there
Until it was accomplished;
His dying breath has brought me life –
I know that it is finished.

I will not boast in anything,
No gifts, no power, no wisdom;
But I will boast in Jesus Christ,
His death and resurrection.
Why should I gain from His reward?
I cannot give an answer;
But this I know with all my heart –
His wounds have paid my ransom.

Continue to Join Us in Reading God's Word!

We hope that this daily worship guide has been an encouragement to you during this season of celebrating and reflecting on the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. As you continue to seek Him, we want to point you towards our F-260 Reading Plan, which is designed for both individuals who have never read the entire Bible and families who desire a unified reading plan. While the plan does not cover every chapter of every book, it guides readers through all 66 books, highlighting foundational passages that every disciple should know. The plan calls for reading 1-2 chapters per day for 5 days each week, with weekends off to catch up or digest more of the Word. If you haven't started the plan yet, you can jump in with us in Week 15. To access the plan and resources for adults, teenagers, and children, click the link provided below. By engaging with this plan, you can deepen your knowledge of Scripture, draw closer to Jesus, and continue to grow as His disciples.

lifept.org/bible

If you are not in a D Group, this would be a great time to sign up so that you can dive into the Word of God alongside other believers.

